

999-fact file

Formed Sunday 5th December 1976

Line Up Line up three original members Nick Cash – vocals & guitars, Guy Days – guitars & vocals, Pablo Labritain – drums. Jon Watson bass was replaced in 1986 by Danny Palmer and subsequently by Arturo Bassick in 1991. 2019 Stoo Meadows – drums (in Pablo Labritain's absence)

Singles I'm Alive, Nasty Nasty, Emergency, Me & My Desire, Homicide, Feeling Alright with the Crew, Found Out Too Late, Trouble, Obsessed, Lil' Red Riding Hood, Indian Reservation, Wild Sun, 13th Floor Madness, Gimme The World

Albums 999, Separates, The Biggest Prize in Sport, The Biggest Tour in Sport, Concrete, 13th Floor Madness, Face to Face, Lust Power & Money, Greatest Hits Live, Live & Loud, The Cellblock Tapes, You Us It, The Albion Years, 999 Emergency, Takeover, Slam, Dancing In The Wrong Shoes, English Wipeout, The Punk Singles 1977 – 1980, Outburst, Death In Soho, The Sharpest Cuts, Bay Area Homicide, 999 Anthology, 999 The Albums 1987 - 2007 and Bish! Bash! Bosh!

Gigs First gig - 22 January 1977 at Northampton Cricket Club followed by - 142 London gigs, 57 UK Tours, 18 U.S. Tours, 37 European Tours visiting Finland, Sweden, Norway, Germany, Belgium, Holland, France, Spain, Portugal, Austria, Italy, Japan, Argentina, Brazil and Poland, the Czech Republic and Croatia

1990 onwards French Tours, German Tours, Thal Festival, Austria, Bizarre Festival, Scandinavian Tour, Tokyo Japan, Argentina & Brazil, U.S.A., Canada, Belgium, Poland, Croatia, Norway and recently festivals in Dusseldorf, Milan, Prague, Italy, the UK and Czech Republic