Schëppe Siwen from Luxembourg blends the raw energy and rebellious spirit of punk with the rich depth of traditional folk music. Since their formation in December 2009, the band has become a powerhouse in the European music scene, turning heads and even making waves across the Atlantic with an unforgettable performance in the U.S.

With ten musicians, including four trumpets, flute, accordion, violin, guitar, bass, and drums, Schëppe Siwen smashes genre boundaries, fusing influences from folk, punk, classical, hip-hop, rock, reggae, and ska into a unique and explosive sound. Their songs, sung in Luxembourgish, captivate audiences with infectious melodies, powerful arrangements, and an electrifying stage presence.

But Schëppe Siwen is more than just music. They are passionate advocates for social causes, championing equality, environmental sustainability, and the recognition of diversity.
