Hamburg ska-punk newcomers The NØ! are back! Just 14 months after their debut album 'Melodien für Momente' (Melodies for Moments), featuring cover versions of songs by their predecessor band – Hamburg TwoTone punk legends NO LIFE LOST – they are finally releasing an album full of new songs entitled 'UNERHØRT – Ihre schönsten Songs bis jetzt' (UNHEARD – Their Best Songs So Far). What can we expect to hear? An album about the harsh realities of growing older, perhaps... Nonsense! With eleven songs covering a wide range of genres, The NØ! take stock of the issues that concern us in these times. The lyrics deal with social media hype and AI ('Ich mag Ich Nicht' / I Don't Like Me!), people with oversized egos and influence ('Supertyp' [Super Guy]), body culture ('Der Tapezierer' [The Wallpaperer]), life after death ('Jenseits vom Leben'), deadly jokes ('Töten mit Witz' – a musical tribute to the great Monty Python), turbo-commercialisation in sport ('Fußball, Du bist ein Arsch') and much more. All this without pointing fingers, but rather in a thoughtful way and with a good dose of humour. Musically, the band not only draws on ska punk, but also shows that it has mastered styles ranging from bossa nova and roots reggae to the sludge metal song 'Der Tapezierer' (The Wallpaperer) – featuring thrash metal legend Rob Gonnella from ASSASSIN as guest vocalist, by the way. In addition to the uplifting song 'Das Leben ist Schön' (Life Is Beautiful), which was previously released as a 7" single, we would also recommend the catchy ska-punk tune 'Golfplatzhooligans' (Golf Course Hooligans).

>>>Conclusion: With the album 'UNERHØRT – Ihre schönsten Songs bis Jetzt', The NØ! have released a debut work with varied original compositions as a limited edition on vinyl and CD that leaves you wanting much more! Translated with DeepL.com (free version)
